The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispels the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine as sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-sect, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle wrapper, contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

ANOTHER "MIDAS" COMES TO GRIEF.

A. D. Oliver, the modern multimillionaire Midas, who duped Georgia citizens out of thousands of dollars and married one of the prettiest young women in the State, has been positively identified as an escaped convict with an unexpired term of eleven years hanging over his head.

The identification was made yesterday morning by Sheriff Jones, of Aberdeen county, Miss., and came as a climax to the arrest of Oliver several days ago when he was fleeing with his young bride in an automobile.

Sheriff Jones reached Bait bridge yesterday morning, and immediately went to the jail. The moment he saw the ex-bankster he declared that the prisoner was a fugitive from the Mississippi penitentiary, where he was known as Charles Harding.

The sheriff said that Oliver, alias Harding, was arrested in Aberdeen county, Miss., May 30, 1908, and remained in jail under various charges for several weeks, finally being convicted on all counts brought against him. This prisoner escaped from the penitentiary December 31, 1908.

Several days after this date Oliver reached the Bainbridge section, penniless, but in a very short time he was reputed to be worth millions and began buying banks, sawmills, and property throughout the state. Oliver, in a few brief weeks, became famous for this ready reply he made to all propositions: "I'll take it; just wrap it up."

This applied to land, houses, and stocks, and in fact everything that was purchasable. He had the reputation of never refusing to trade, and he always paid a small proportion in cash, insisting that the seller deposit the money in one of his many banks. Thus the endless chain of kiting continued until Oliver's trades amounted to hundreds of thousands. He purchased automobiles at wholesale and gave them to his newly made friends.

He built many fine houses, and the whole countryside stood aghast at his wealth. Oliver found time to court Miss Rose English, daughter of a prominent family, and married her, giving her diamonds worth $10,000 as a wedding present. He lived like a prince and spent money lavishly upon his young bride. He established fine stables and bought blooded horses, and almost weekly added to his stock of automobiles. He bought more banks and lands and signed contracts for the building of towns in the prairie country and drew at will on New York banks.

His Waterloo came when a check for $10,000 given to an Albany contractor was returned unpaid. Then the police became suspicious, and his arrest followed his flight in an auto with his bride. When Oliver, alias Harding, was arrested in Bainbridge it is said the body of his automobile was half full of currency in bills of large denominations, which were wrapped in newspapers.

Immediately following his arrest he suffered a collapse, and was released on bail, as his mental condition appeared to be serious. Additional warrants were issued and he was again placed in jail. The four banks bought by Oliver had been looted.

Oliver is not only wanted in Mississippi, where he has eleven years to serve in the penitentiary, but he is wanted in Atlanta and Birmingham by the Federal authorities.

It is said he has served a term in the Ohio penitentiary for obtaining diamonds under false pretenses. It is also said that he has three other wives.

To Probe Police Department.

New York, June 4.—The entire inner workings of the New York police department are going to be probed by Mayor McClellan, especially the allegations that in the operations of the "third degree," the rights of prisoners have not been respected by the detectives of the central office. McClellan today took up in his chamber the allegations made by Supreme Court Justice Gaynor regarding the alleged illegal photographing for the rogues gallery of the boy Duffy, and his alleged persecution therewith. He declared, he would conduct a real investigation of the entire department as conducted under General Birgham.
